Articulate Solutions Kicks Off 2019 with Ten Awards

January 8, 2019 (Gilroy, CA): Articulate Solutions is starting off the new year celebrating a total of ten total awards from prestigious national and international design competitions that honor the firm's creative work.

The new Visit Gilroy website was a big winner for its hometown creative services firm. Featuring a mobile-friendly design and online tools to help visitors to plan a trip to Gilroy, the new website (VisitGilroy.com) won a total of four different awards, including the highest Platinum Hermes Award, Gold awards in both the Marcom and DotComm competitions, and a Summit Bronze award.

Articulate Solutions also won a 2018 Communicator Award for designing a new responsive website for PECO Pallet, a North American leader in pooled pallet services. The new website (PECOPallet.com) highlights the company's sustainable block pallets and dedicated customer service.

Solis Winery was another big winner with two Gold awards from both MarCom and W3Awards for their new website (SolisWinery.com). The Gilroy Chamber of Commerce website (gilroy.org) also garnered a Gold DotComm and Silver Davey award.

Finishing up with a true labor of love, Articulate Solutions donated its time and creative expertise to build a brand-new website for Community Solutions, a local charity that provides critical services for children, teens, adults, and families who are facing times of crisis. The new website (CommunitySolutions.org) was awarded the DotComm Gold Award for non-profit organizations.

Katherine Filice, CEO and Executive Creative Director of Articulate Solutions, said, "Building our clients' business is our number one focus—their success is our success. While we are honored to share these awards with them and our community, the real reward is seeing our creative work deliver lasting results for them."

The MarCom Awards is an international creative competition that receives over 6,000 entries each year from corporate marketing departments, advertising agencies, PR firms, design shops, production companies, and freelancers. The W³ Awards honors creative excellence on the web and is sanctioned and judged by the Academy of Interactive and Visual Arts. The Davey Awards is the largest and most prestigious design competition for smaller agencies across the globe. The DotComm Awards honor excellence in web
